THE ECONOMIC IMPACT OF

Brooksville-Tampa Bay Regional Airport (BKV)

BROOKSVILLE-TAMPA BAY REGIONAL AIRPORT

Brooksville-Tampa Bay Regional Airport is located in Hernando County, approximately 35 miles north of Tampa. The airport has two runways, with the longest runway measuring 7,001 feet. The airport accommodates all types of general aviation aircraft and business jets.

The airport primarily supports corporate business activity, military training, and flight training. The airport assists the region by staging energy companies during hurricane relief efforts. The airport is engaged in the local community, hosting events such as the Florida Agriculture and Wildlife Expo, which attracts over 6,000 people. In addition to the airport's main activities, it also supports recreational flying, aerial photography, and emergency medical aviation. The airport also provides two full-service operators (FBOs) to serve both local and transient users.

Previous versions of this Study used different terminology to communicate results. The following terms were updated: Direct Impacts changed to On-Airport Impacts and Indirect Impacts changed to Visitor Spending Impacts.

Florida's Statewide Benefits From Aviation

Florida realizes significant economic benefits from aviation. The Florida Department of Transportation completed a comprehensive economic impact analysis to measure these benefits. Benefits measured in the FDOT study considered on-airport impacts, visitor spending impacts, and multiplier impacts.

Florida's 129 public-use airports (including 20 commercial service facilities) are a major economic engine of the State's economy. The aviation system keeps Florida connected to the global marketplace while simultaneously driving local economies. Florida's airports provide space and infrastructure for important activities such as manufacturing, logistics, tourism, and emergency response. Below is a summary of the total statewide economic impact as well as the impact of District 7.
